

"...lively and affecting documentary"

—Ann Hornaday, Washington Post

"entertaining and inspiring tribute"

— T.M. Eddins Jr., OnTap Magazine

BALLOU

www.balloumovie.com

a documentary film
by michael patrei

NR ALL AGES, NOTHING OBJECTIONABLE

Language: English Color/Approx. 86 minutes NTSC

ISBN 978-0-9819149-0-9

6 34479 99386 2

Order Date: 10/21/2008

Street Date: 11/18/2008

List: $24.95

Catalog #: GTP9386

Members of the Ballou Senior High School Marching Band rise above their violence-filled Washington, D.C., neighborhood in this documentary, which follows the group as they try to achieve their dream of winning the national marching band competition. Inspired by their tireless director, Darrell Watson, and helped by a dedicated team of volunteers, the musical teens put their heads, hearts and souls into making the band the best it can be.

BALLOU © 2008 www.BallouMovie.com

Distributed by GARDEN THIEVES PICTURES · 2717 13th St NW · Washington, DC 20009
phone: (202) 253-4949 · fax: (800) 866-2987

BALLOU © 2008 Garden Thieves Pictures all rights reserved

Screened at the White House!

Featured on:

Good Morning America

The Ellen DeGeneres Show

ABC World News

Marketing Points:

- Features: Gen Colin Powell, Rev Jesse Jackson, Congressman John Lewis, Marion Barry, Chuck Brown and Denyce Graves!
- Classroom lesson plans available for use in Middle/High Schools and Colleges.
- Ballou Band will be featured internationally at the 2009 Tournament of Roses Parade and 2009 Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade!

Over 40 minutes of Special Features:

- Extended interviews with Colin Powell and Rev Jesse Jackson
- Deleted Scenes
- Director/Producer commentary