

with major support from

SUNDANCE INSTITUTE

MARKETING POINTS

- Winner of 5 audience and jury awards and official selection at over 20 film festivals!
- Endorsed by the American Civil Liberties Union, Campus Progress, Human Rights Campaign, and Gay, Lesbian, Straight Education Network. Over 1.5 million members nationwide!!
- Featured at major national philanthropic and educational conferences including Council on Foundations and National Multicultural Education Association.
- Major outreach campaigns with nationwide PBS broadcast planned for The Day of Silence on April 16 and National Coming Out Day on October 11, 2010

Run Time: 56 Min
Rating: NR
Format: NTSC
Language: English
Includes Special Features

Order Date: 2/2/2010
Street Date: 3/9/2010
List: $24.99 USD
Catalog #: GTP1379
UPC: 884501213790

Following the story of a small American town confronting a firestorm of controversy ignited by a same-sex wedding announcement in the local newspaper, this gripping documentary illustrates the challenges of being an outsider in a conservative rural community and the change that is possible when courageous people break the silence and search for common ground.

Out in the Silence will challenge you to rethink your values and close the gaps that divide our communities.

Distributed in North America by GARDEN THIEVES PICTURES · 2717 13th St NW· Washington, DC 20009
phone: (202) 253-4949 · fax: (866) 297-8103